

Obituary for Arthur J. Shulman (1945-1986)

by Phillip W. Weiss

Arthur J. Shulman was born in 1945 in Jersey City, New Jersey. He was the younger of two children, the other child being his sister. He lived in Jersey City his entire life. He graduated college and worked as a public school teacher. He lived with his mother and was a devoted son and brother. He was also a good friend to many. People genuinely liked him. He enjoyed getting together with friends and going to parties and other social functions. He genuinely cared about other people. An unpretentious man, he nonetheless possessed a sharp mind. He had an excellent singing voice and often sang in public at open-mikes. He was a kind, gentle and giving person, a genuine gentleman, and someone who was a friend. On June 30, 1986 Arthur J. Shulman died. His death came suddenly during the night while he was asleep. The cause of death was sleep apnea. People were stunned and saddened by the news of his death. He was 41 years old.

