Maggie and the Professor or conflict resolution, American style by Phillip W. Weiss

Phil's Literary Works LLC 19 West 34th Street Penthouse New York, NY 10001 Email: pwnycny@aol.com www.philsliteraryworks.com 212-388-8690

Characters

Maggie Ciernikova – s Slovakian-American graduate student

Professor Ernst Rheinhardt – a German-American graduate professor

Abner Yeabelman – an attorney representing Maggie

Zander O'Doul – an attorney representing Rheinhardt

Professor Sylvia Kleiderman – chairman of a hearing panel

Dr. Roger J. Repolsky – an expert witness

Dr. Conrad Begelhorn – an expert witness

Sunny Dubois – a waitress

Stepan Busoc – Maggie's friend or lover

Professor Harold Eppler – member of the hearing panel

Professor Ronald Corkman – member of the hearing panel

Cyndy Goodday – a graduate student

Erdley O'Shay – a graduate student

Professor Lester McNally – a graduate professor

Synopsis: A dispute over an academic grade on a term paper mushrooms into a legal war.

Tagline: Here we go again.

This play is a work of fiction.

PART ONE

Scene 1

Time: the present.

Place: a classroom at an unnamed graduate school somewhere in the United States. On stage standing is Professor Ernst Rheinhardt. Sitting are three women: Cyndy Goodday, Erdley O'Shay and Maggie Ciernikova. They are students. Rheinhardt is lecturing the class; the students are listening and occasionally jot down notes.

RHEINHARDT

And now we come to a most controversial event in the history of Europe in the twentieth century: the 1938 Munich Conference. Today the Munich Conference is considered to be a disaster. But in 1938 it was viewed quite differently. At that time the results of the conference were received with universal acclaim. The men responsible for negotiating the pact were hailed as heroes who had managed to pull Europe away from the brink of disaster and preserve the peace. Can anyone tell me the names of the four men who participated in the conference?

MAGGIE

Yes, I can.

RHEINHARDT (surprised)

Okay. Who were they?

MAGGIE

Adolf Hitler, Neville Chamberlain, Eduard Daladier and Benito Mussolini.

RHEINHARDT

Very good. Somebody has been doing their reading.

MAGGIE

It's more than that, Professor. I happen to be from Slovakia and so I know something about the Munich Conference. We were taught all about it in school. I'll tell you this: my country was sold out, by the English, the French, and by the Germans inside my country who were nothing but a bunch of traitors and Nazis. I can understand how the British and French could have turned their back on Czechoslovakia – we weren't worth fighting for. It was the people inside my country who were the problem. The Germans, Hungarians and Poles, all of whom wanted to carve up my country at the expense of the Czechs and Slovaks who wanted the country to survive. That's right – we wanted our country to survive, to make it work, to make it into something we could be proud of. A lot of people don't know nothing about Czechoslovakia. All everybody knows about is Prague! Prague! Prague! It's as if everyone's been to Prague. They talk about how beautiful the city is and how nice the people are, etc., etc., but there's a lot more to that part of the world then Prague, let me tell you, and I know what I'm talking about because that's where I was born and raised.

RHEINHARDT

Excuse me, miss ...

MAGGIE

(Ignores Rheinhardt's interruption)

Slovakia is a beautiful place. Beautiful countryside, beautiful farms, majestic mountains, flowing rivers and streams. A virtual paradise. Incredible places where you can go and relax and have fun. And we have big cities too, as big as Prague. Have any of you ever heard of Bratislava?

CYNDY

Bratislava? I never heard of it.

MAGGIE

Bratislava is the capital of Slovkia. It's one of the most beautiful cities in Europe. It has over a million people. It has great museums, beautiful churches and cathedrals, top notch schools and universities and the best food in the world. You haven't lived until you've had yourself some buchty..

ERDLEY

What's buchty?

MAGGIE

They're cherry filled buns, very sweet and moist and extremely tasty, a lot like chocolate layer cake, except much better. I know people who got hooked on buchty. They can't stop eating it. It takes over your life. The problem is that once you start, you can't stop and you can quickly blimp out if you don't control yourself. But that's hard to do because it tastes so good! I know from personal experience. I used to be so fat. You wouldn't believe it. It's only after I came to the United States I was finally able to lose weight. I blame it all on the buchty. Of course, they got all kinds of cakes here too, but compared to the what they have in my country, it's like comparing sugar to sawdust. I hope you don't find that comment offensive. I mean, taste is taste and to each his own, but I will tell you that if you ever go to Slovakia and order buchty, you may not want to come back. You can't say you haven't been warned.

Erdley and Cyndy laugh.

RHEINHARDT

I think we need to get back to what we were ...

MAGGIE

(ignores Rheinhardt)

Anyway, I love food. My mother is a wonderful cook. I miss her. She is my best friend, the only person in the whole world I can depend on. Of course, I felt the same way about my father. His name was Henrik Ciernik. What a great man. Everyone who met him loved him. A real patriot and someone who taught me the value of hard work and being honest. My father was a hard worker. He worked in a tool and dye factory located outside of Bratislava. Even though he had little formal education, he was wise to ways of the world and was always there to answer the call to duty. He fought against the Nazis in World War Two and against the Russians in 1968. The Germans were trying to destroy our country and we rose up against them and we would have thrown them out if the allies had given us some support. My father was in the Slovakian army and fought like the dickens but he was captured, thrown in a concentration camp and then brutalized by the Germans. Nobody came to our aid. But after Munich, we knew we were considered expendable and that we had to depend on ourselves. The same goes for 1968. We get invaded and once again the West does nothing. My father told me it was awful. The people went to the street and ...

RHEINHARDT

Sorry. Class is over.

CYNDY

Wow, Maggie, really interesting stuff. This is best class we've had yet. Now I want to visit Slovakia!

ERDLEY

You've been around, girl! Whoa! You got me all excited now.

MAGGIE

Maybe I did too much talking.

Cyndy, Erdley and Maggie laugh and exit.

RHEINHARDT

(slams a book against the wall, shouts)

That damn little guttersnipe! That Slovakian slut, who does she think she is, upstaging me like that!

A man rushes in. His name is Lester McNally.

LESTER

(alarmed)

I heard a loud noise. Is everything okay?

RHEINHARDT

(angry)

No. Everything is not okay.

LESTER

What happened?

RHEINHARDT

I was lecturing the class. I then stopped and asked a question and then this twirp of a student answered the question and then wouldn't stop talking. She went on and on and on like a broken record. I thought I was going to lose my mind. I couldn't get her to stop. Her voice sounded like a drill that was being driven into my head. It was horrible. And the way she took over the class. The nerve of her! She did it on purpose to spite me. I know it!

LESTER

Now wait a minute. Don't you think you're kind of going aboard on this?

RHEINHARDT

No, I'm not. Everything she did was meant to mock me. She knows I'm German, so she hates me and so to hurt me she must humiliate me. I can't let her win. I must regain control of the class. Otherwise I'll be through. I'll be the laughing stock of the school. I won't be able to face the students. And besides, I have to think of my reputation. I'm a professor. The director of an institute of advanced studies. How can I get people to respect me if I let them shove me over to the side whenever they want?

LESTER

Professor, I think you're blowing this whole thing way out of proportion.

RHEINHARDT

Professor McNally, you don't understand.

LESTER

I do understand. Some of the students are difficult.

RHEINHARDT

But today was ignored. Ignored. Don't you understand? I was made to look like a fool. And it's all because of HER!

LESTER

I still think you're making a mountain out of a mole hill.

RHEINHARDT

(on the verge of tears)

I wish I could agree with you, but I can't. Please leave me alone so I can think.

End of scene 1.

Scene 2:

Time: later that evening. Place: Rheinhardt's apartment. He is seated on a chair at stage left. He takes out his cell phone and makes a call. Maggie enters stage right. She is in her apartment. Her phone is ringing. She answers her phone.

MAGGIE

Hello

RHEINHARDT

Hello. Is this Ms. Ciernikova?

MAGGIE

Yes, it is.

RHEINHARDT

Good. This is Professor Rheinhardt.

MAGGIE

(surprised and flattered)
Professor Rheinhardt? Wow, what a surprise!

RHEINHARDT

Yes, I guess it is. (pause) Look, let me get to the point. I want to meet with you at a local restaurant to discuss certain important matters regarding the class. When would you be available to meet?

MAGGIE

Gee, I really don't know. This is such a surprise.

RHEINHARDT

I consider it urgent that we meet as soon as possible.

MAGGIE

Can't you tell me what this all about now?

RHEINHARDT

No. I must meet you in person.

MAGGIE

Well, if it's that important, then let me check my schedule.

RHEINHARDT

(becoming impatient)

Look, I can't wait while you check your schedule. I have to know now.

MAGGIE

Have I done anything wrong?

RHEINHARDT

Of course not, my dear. It's just that something has come up that requires immediate attention, and if we delay too much, then I don't what will happen.

MAGGIE

Are you in some kind of trouble?

RHEINHARDT

Oh, nothing like that. It's just that after class today a matter concerning you cropped up and as your professor I have a responsibility to discuss this matter with you.

MAGGIE

Well, what about meeting tomorrow?

RHEINHARDT

Tomorrow? (pause) That would be fine. At what time?

MAGGIE

7 PM? After I get off from work.

RHEINHARDT

That will work for me. Let's meet at Café Noir at Tenth and Main Street.

MAGGIE

Café Noir?

RHEINHARDT

Yes, Café Noir. It's a nice place.

MAGGIE

Will this be a dinner date?

RHEINHARDT

Sure. Why not.

MAGGIE

(excited)

Okay. Then it's a date! I'll see you then! Bye. Maggie exits.

RHEINHARDT

(to himself, out loud, scoffing)

A date! Indeed!

End of scene 2

Scene 3

Time: the following evening. Place: a restaurant. Maggie and Rheinhardt are seated at a table. They are facing each other. They have already been served food.

RHEINHARDT

You're looking lovely tonight.

MAGGIE

Thank you. I thought I would dress for the occasion.

RHEINHARDT

Of course, my dear. After all, a young lady like yourself always wants to make a good impression. Is that not so?

MAGGIE

Please, Professor Rheinhardt. You're making me blush.

RHEINHARDT

You can call me Ernst.

MAGGIE

Okay ... Ernst.

RHEINHARDT

I've asked you to meet with me so I could speak with you about some very important matters that came up in class. However, before doing that, I's like to learn some more about you.

MAGGIE

Of course ... Ernst. What is it you would like to know?

RHEINHARDT

If I recall correctly, you said that you were from Slovakia.

MAGGIE

Yes, I was born and raised in a little town outside of Bratislava. It's really not even a town, just a village, a hamlet as they would say in England. By the way, a few years ago I spent four months in England. I lived with an English family in a village outside of Coventry. I really loved it there. The people were so friendly and it gave me a chance to improve my English which at the time wasn't very good. In fact, I can't see how anyone can live in the United States without knowing English. It would be like trying to live in my country without knowing Slovak. Slovak is such a special language. Very few people outside of Slovakia know Slovak. Even in Bohemia very few people speak Slovak, and as for the Germans, forget it. They'd never learn it. The Germans were just a bunch of traitors anyway. They sold out my country to Hitler and afterwards tried to Nazify us, the fools. People think that Slovakia sold out to Hitler too, but that's not true! My father fought against the Germans, and became a POW and was beaten by German guards. It's a good thing we got rid of the Germans, and the Hungarians too, after the war. Good riddance to them. I know I shouldn't really be saying these things, it sounds really mean, but you're a professor and so I figure you should understand. So when you brought up the Munich Conference that really started me to thinking, and remembering what I had been taught. By the way, did I tell you that I have a younger brother? His name is Miroslav. Isn't that a beautiful name? It's a popular name in Slovakia. I love my brother and miss him so much. Presently he is living in Prague where he is a film maker. Maybe you heard of him. Miroslav Ciernikov? Such a talented man, and great singer too! If you met him you'd like him. As for me, I'm single, still looking for Mister Right as the saying goes. Don't get me wrong, I like American men, but I'm very choosy about who I go out with. Tonight I'm planning to ...

RHEINHARDT

(trying to suppress his rage) Enough! I can't take your prattling anymore!

you?

MAGGIE

(shocked, stunned and bewildered)
Ernest ... professor ... what's the matter? Have I said something to offend

RHEINHARDT (enraged)

You're blabbering on and on, just like you did in class. That's what's wrong! Once you start you don't stop! It is outrageous! And I can't have that in my class. Do you hear me?

MAGGIE

Yes, professor, I hear you but I still don't understand why you're so angry. What have I done wrong?

RHEINHARDT

You've upstaged me, that's what, and by doing that you've made it impossible for me to teach the class.

MAGGIE

Professor, I think the world of you and would never want to show you up. Please believe me when I say that.

RHEINHARDT

Then you must prove it.

MAGGIE

How?

RHEINHARDT

I'll tell you how. Listen to me carefully. I have a proposal to make: if you remain silent for the remainder of the class, I will give you an A on your term paper, an A for the class and give you permission to use my name as an academic reference.

MAGGIE

You're not serious, are you?

RHEINHARDT

I am absolutely serious.

MAGGIE

But Ernst, professor Rheinhardt, what if I have something to say?

RHEINHARDT

Remain silent. You could speak with me after class.

MAGGIE

You're asking me to do something that is most unusual.

RHEINHARDT
But something that could benefit you immensely if you agree.

MAGGIE

(nervous giggling)

Now I'm feeling a little nervous. If I say yes, then I'm silenced, If I say no, then I don't know what will happen next. It makes me feel kind of queasy.

RHEINHARDT

You'll get over that.

MAGGIE

No, I won't. I'm remembering something my father taught me, to value personal integrity above all else, even if it means making difficult sacrifices. Professor, my silence is not for sale and I have a right to fully participate in class, without conditions.

RHEINHARDT

Your idealism is admirable but absurd. Let me warn you: if you refuse, there could be consequences.

MAGGIE

Well, professor, this has been a lovely dinner. Maggie gets up, picks up a glass of water on the table and pours it over Rheinhardt's head. There's my answer. See you in class. Maggie exits.

A waitress enters. Her name is Sunny.

SUNNY

Is everything all right?

End of scene 3

Scene 4

Time: later that night. Place: the apartment of Maggie's close friend, Stepan Busoc. He is also from Slovakia. Stepan is 6 feet 5 inches tall, weighs 275 pounds and is a former Czechoslovak weightlifting champion. Maggie and Stepan are seated on a sofa

MAGGIE Oh Stepan, it was awful. STEPAN He actually told you that he wanted you to be silent? MAGGIE Yes, he did. STEPAN It's hard to believe. MAGGIE You must believe me. STEPAN I do believe you. It's just hard trying to imagine such a conversation even occurring. MAGGIE I know. I'm still in shock. I wonder if I did the right thing. STEPAN What do you mean? MAGGIE When I dumped the glass of water over his head. STEPAN That you didn't tell me about.

MAGGIE

I was so furious that I took the glass of water and dumped it over his head, then I left.

STEPAN

Hey, as far as I'm concerned, the guy got off lightly. If he had tried that with me, I can assure you it would have been a far different story.

MAGGIE

It's just that I need this course to graduate and if Rheinhardt makes it hard for me, it could ruin my plans.

STEPAN

What plans?

MAGGIE

To go for a Ph. D. in Central European Studies.

STEPAN

I thought you wanted to pursue a career in theater.

MAGGIE

I do, but that's not panning out and I need steady income, so I'm gonna go for a Ph. D.

STEPAN

If that is what you want to do, fine. But if this guy Rheinhardt makes things hard for you, you just let me know and he and I will have a talk.

MAGGIE

Stepan, I know I can always rely on you, but this is something I must attend to myself.

STEPAN

Stop being so proud. Sometimes people need help to deal with problems. From the sound of his name, he's probably German and you know how Germans think about us.

MAGGIE

You think that has something to do with it?

STEPAN

Yes, I do. You told me that you told the class where you are from. So he knows.

MAGGIE

But what could you do?

STEPAN

When I hear about stuff like this, I get so angry. I mean where do people get off treating other people so mean? I remember back in Slovakia there were these kids in school who would bully other kids, just for the fun of it. One day, one of the kids being bullied came to school with a saber and attacked the bullies. He almost killed one of them. After that the bullying stopped.

MAGGIE

I don't want you to do something like that on my behalf. You'd just get yourself into a lot of trouble. It's my problem and I have to deal with it.

STEPAN

You know I care about you.

MAGGIE

I know you do. You're my mountain man and I love you.

Stepan and Maggie embrace.

End of scene 4

Scene 5:

Time: one month later. Place: same as scene 1. It is the final day of classes. Rheinhardt is returning term papers.

CYNDY

(elated)

I got an A!

ERDLEY

YOU got an A? Who'd you copy the paper from?

CYNDY

Very funny! I wrote the paper myself.

ERDLEY

Yeah, right. Who'd you put out for?

CYNDY

You have such a dirty mind!

Rheinhardt gives Erdley her paper.

ERDLEY

(to Rheinhardt)

What? A B plus, and she got an A! No fair! She can't even write her own name! (to Cyndy) Maybe they're something going on between you and the prof.

CYNDY

You wish.

RHEINHARDT

Ladies, please, no more bickering. You both got very good grades. If you have any questions about your grades, see me after class. Rheinhardt continues giving back papers. (to Maggie) Here's your paper. Maggie takes the paper, glances at it, then glances up at Rheinhardt.

MAGGIE

You must be kidding.

RHEINHARDT

No joke, Maggie.

MAGGIE

You gave me an F? Are you fucking serious?

RHEINHARDT

Completely serious, and please watch your language. (to the rest of class) My dear students, it has been a pleasure teaching you this semester. For the most part you were attentive and engaged, and demonstrated an understanding of the subject matter. With that said, I want to wish all of you the best of luck in the future studies. Class dismissed.

CYNDY

(to Erdley)

I'll meet you at the pop shop, okay?

ERDLEY

Fine. I still can't believe that you got an A.

CYNDY

When you got it, you got it.

Cyndy and Erdley exit. They can be heard laughing off-stage. Maggie is alone with Rheinhardt.

MAGGIE

There is no way this paper rates an F. My paper is twenty four pages long, with lots of sources and lots of footnotes, everything that's expected of a paper. I'm telling right you now that I will appeal this grade. You're not going to get away with this.

RHEINHARDT

My dear, appeal all you want. You'll just be wasting your time and making a fool of yourself in the process. You can always re-take the course.

MAGGIE

But you're the only one who teaches it.

RHEINHARDT

Yes, I am. Is that a problem?

MAGGIE

For me, yes, because you know I need to pass this course to graduate.

RHEINHARDT

You should have thought about that when we had our little get together.

MAGGIE

You wanted to shut me up! That's what the communists tried to do to my people in Slovakia. You're no different than them! In fact, you're worse because at least the commies were upfront about they were doing, not sneaky and pretentious like you.

Rheinhardt shrugs his shoulders.

RHEINHARDT

Complain all you want. My decision is final and that's that.

MAGGIE

If you think this is finished, well it isn't!

RHEINHARDT (smug)

Suit yourself.

Rheinhardt gathers up his papers and exits. Maggie is alone. She is weeping.

End of Scene 5

Scene 6

Time: Afternoon, the following day.

Place: A law office. Seated behind the desk is an attorney, Abner Yeabelman. Seated on the other side of the desk is Maggie.

ABNER

Now, how may I help you?

MAGGIE

I'm currently a student at Downtown Graduate Center. This semester I was enrolled in a history class taught by Ernst Rheinhardt. He gave me an F on my term paper. As a result I'm going to fail the course. I want to appeal the grade and I think I need a lawyer.

ABNER

Why do you need a lawyer?

MAGGIE

Because if I go and file the appeal myself, the school will just rubber stamp what Rheinhardt did, that's all. I won't get a fair hearing.

ABNER

Sadly, that's probably true. An appeal is an administrative hearing. It's not the same as a trial. They have the trappings of due process but little of the substance. The presiding officers are not outside officials but employees of the agency, in this case, your school. Still, that doesn't mean you can't prevail. It just means that the likelihood of that happening is greatly reduced. Have you tried talking to your teacher? See if he'll change the grade.

MAGGIE

Yes, I did. It's useless. I told him I planned to appeal. He just shrugged his shoulders and said that I'd be wasting my time.

ABNER

He seems rather sure of himself.

MAGGIE

He's arrogant.

What was your professor's nar	ABNER me again?
Ernst Rheinhardt.	MAGGIE
Rheinhardt. That's a German n	ABNER name. Is he German?
I believe he is.	MAGGIE
And you? Where are you from	ABNER ?
I'm from Slovakia.	MAGGIE
Okay. Do you have the term pa	ABNER aper with you?
Yes, I do.	MAGGIE
Could I see it?	ABNER
Of course.	MAGGIE ng, takes out the paper and gives it to Abner.) neet, then thumbs through the rest of the

ABNER

Lots of red markings. That's not a good sign.

MAGGII	Ε
--------	---

All nitpicking.

ABNER

Nitpicking to you. A big deal to him. (pause) Let me be frank with you. These kinds of cases are hard to win. It's hard to get a school instructor to reverse a grade. Professors are given wide latitude in these matters. You have to demonstrate that there is no evidence to support the failing grade or that the professor was motivated by malice, both of which are huge mountains to climb. If I agree to take your case, I can't promise you a successful outcome. Do you understand that?

MAGGIE

Yes, I do.

ABNER

So, do you still want to proceed?

MAGGIE

Yes. I have no choice in the matter. If I let him get away with this, my plans will be totally derailed.

ABNER

Okay. Now let's discuss my fee and have you sign some papers. (pause) Oh, before I forget, how did you happen to find my name?

MAGGIE

On line. I did a search under administrative law and your name came up.

ABNER

I guess it pays to advertise.

MAGGIE

Have you handled many cases like mine?

ABNER

I've been doing this for fourteen years, and I'll tell you: every case is different. The main thing is to put together the best possible case and hope that the hearing officers weigh the evidence with objectivity and arrive at a fair decision. That's it. Remember, it's not a court of law, and the burden of proof is on the complainant, not the respondent. Do you understand that?

MAGGIE

Yes, I understand. Let's proceed.

End of scene 6

Scene 7

Time: two weeks later. Place: an office at the school. The office serves as a hearing room. Seated behind a desk are three people, two men and woman. They are members of the History Department faculty. They are the hearing officers. The woman's name is Prof. Sylvia Kleiderman, the men are Prof. Harold Eppler and Prof. Ronald Corkman. Seated on the other side of the desk are Maggie and Rheinhardt. Seated next to Maggie is her attorney, Abner Yeabelman. Seated next to Rheinhardt is his attorney, Zander O'Doul (who is female).

KLEIDERMAN

This hearing will now come to order. My name is Professor Sylvia Kleiderman. I will be chairing this hearing. To my right is Professor Irving Eppler and to my left Professor Ronald Corkman. We comprise the panel that will hear and decide the case brought before us. Today we will hear the case Ciernikova versus Rheinhardt. Before we begin, I will call out names, and when you hear your name, you will answer "here" or "present." (pause) Maggie Ciernikova.

Here.

MAGGIE

KLEIDERMAN

Professor Ernst Rheinhardt.

RHEINHARDT

Present, madam chairman.

KLEIDERMAN

Abner Yeabelman.

ABNER

Here, madam chairman, as counsel for the plaintiff.

KLEIDERMAN

Zander O"Doul.

ZANDER

Here, madam chairman, as counsel for the respondent.

KLEIDERMAN

It is duly noted that both parties and their respective counsels are present. Before we start, however, just a few preliminary comments. First, during these proceedings, proper decorum will be maintained. No outbursts, interruptions or other improper conduct will be tolerated. Second, the hearing officers present may ask the witnesses questions. Third, although this venue is not a court of law, the decisions rendered by this body are final and are not subject to further administrative review. With that said, let us begin. The respondent will go first. (to Zander) Ms. O'Doul, are you ready to proceed?

ZANDER

(to Kleiderman)

Respondent is ready.

KLEIDERMAN

You may call your first witness.

ZANDER

We have no witnesses to call.

KLEIDERMAN

Duly noted. (to Abner) Are you ready to proceed?

ABNER

Yes, your honor. Plaintiff calls our first witness, Ms. Cyndy Goodday.

Cyndy enters and goes into the witness stand.

KLEIDERMAN

(to Cyndy)

Please raise your right hand. (Cyndy raises her right hand) Do you solemnly promise or affirm to tell the truth, the whole truth and nothing but the truth?

CYNDY

I do. (Cyndy lowers her right hand.)

KLEIDERMAN

You may be seated. Cyndy sits.

Do you know the plaintiff?	ABNER
You mean Maggie?	CYNDY
Yes, Maggie. Do you know her	ABNER ?
Of course I do. You think I have	CYNDY e a memory problem?
The witness is directed just to	KLEIDERMAN answer the questions.
Yeah, I know her from class.	CYNDY
How did Maggie conduct herse	ABNER elf in class?
her until about a month ago when Pro	CYNDY If you the truth I never took much notice of ofessor Rhienhardt asked the class a If Maggie answered and then kept talking.
Do you recall what Maggie talk	ABNER sed about?
Kind of. She said she was from a bunch of other stuff that I really car	CYNDY n Slovakia, that I remember clearly, and then n't remember.

ABNER

Did Maggie's comments bother you?

No, not at all.	YNDY
Al	BNER
While Maggie was talking, what w	vas Professor Rheinhardt doing?
_	YNDY ning except listening, like all the rest of us.
ZA	ANDER
Objection, your honor. Calls for s	peculation.
KI	LEIDERMAN
Objection overruled. You may cor	ntinue, Mr. Yeadelman.
Al	BNER
How do you know Professor Rhei	inhardt was listening?
C`	YNDY
Because he was standing in front	of the class looking at Maggie.
All How long did Maggie talk?	BNER
l'm not sure.	YNDY
All Estimate.	BNER
C <sup>v</sup>	YNDY
Ten, maybe fifteen minutes. Until	class ended.
Al	BNER
When class ended, what did you d	do?

	I got up and left.	CYNDY
	What about the rest of the class	ABNER s?
	The rest of the class too.	CYNDY
Ex Wh class? I de Did	Including Maggie?	ABNER
	Except Maggie.	CYNDY
		ABNER thing, did Professor Rheinhardt say to the
	I don't remember exactly. Some	CYNDY ething like class is over. That was it.
	Did Professor Rheinhardt leave	ABNER the room too?
	No, he didn't.	CYNDY
	In subsequent classes, did Mag	ABNER ggie participate in classroom discussions?
	Yes, she did.	CYNDY
	Did you find anything she said	ABNER inappropriate?

CYNDY No. In fact, sometimes she made us laugh.
ABNER How so?
CYNDY By the way she talked, real folksy like.
ABNER Do you feel that she dominated the class?
CYNDY Not at all. She just did a lot of talking.
ABNER Did Maggie have permission to talk?
CYNDY Yes, she did. She replied to questions from the professor.
ABNER Did Professor Rheinhardt ever seemed displeased or annoyed by Maggie's replies?
ZANDER Objection. Calls for speculation.
KLEIDERMAN Mr. Yeadelman, please rephrase your question.
ABNER Yes, madam chairman. ( to Cyndy ) Did Professor Rheinhardt ever tell Maggie to stop talking?

CYNDY

No.

ABNER Express displeasure over the length of her comments?
CYNDY No.
ABNER Take offense over anything she said in class?
CYNDY No.
ABNER Thank you ( to Zander ) Your witness.
ZANDER What are your academic credentials?
CYNDY I have a BA degree in physical education.
ZANDER Have you ever taught a class?
CYNDY No.
ZANDER Do you normally watch what other people are doing in class?
ABNER Objection, madam chairman. Relevance?

ZANDER

Your honor, the witness is a student. I want to know if watching other people in class was part of the course.

	Objection overruled. The witnes	KLEIDERMAN ss will answer the question.
	I'm no snoop, if that's what you	CYNDY 're suggesting.
client		ZANDER why were you watching Maggie and my
	I wasn't watching anybody, oka	CYNDY y? Let me tell you the truth.
	Please do.	ZANDER
	The class was boring and Magg	CYNDY gie kind of livened it up.
	How did she liven it up?	ZANDER
-		CYNDY stion she would include all kind of other ods that they ate, the scenery, stuff like
	And what about the Professor?	ZANDER You testified that he listened too.
	Yeah, that's right.	CYNDY

ZANDER

He never said anything?

	Well, maybe.	CYNDY
never	Think very carefully. Are you al said anything?	ZANDER bsolutely certain that Professor Rheinhardt
Profes	Now that I'm thinking about this ssor Rheinhardt would say thing	CYNDY s, I kind of remember that occasionally gs like, "Are you through?"
	And what would Maggie say?	ZANDER
	She seemed to ignore him.	CYNDY
	Objection. Speculation.	ABNER
asked. "Are you throu		KLEIDERMAN hat did Maggie say when the Professor
	Nothing. She'd just keep on tal	CYNDY king.
	When you say she kept on talki	EPPLER ( to Cyndy ) ing, could you elaborate?
	What do you mean?	CYNDY
	Did she talk nonston, or were t	EPPLER here interruptions?

CYNDY I would say nonstop. Once Maggie got started, she was off to the races
Did the plaintiff and the respor	EPPLER ndent ever argue in class?
You mean Maggie and the prof	CYNDY fessor?
Yes, Maggie and the professor	EPPLER
I don't recall them ever arguing	CYNDY g.
No sharp words? No harsh exc	CORKMAN (to Cyndy) changes?
No, nothing like that.	CYNDY
Did you pass the course?	EPPLER
I did.	CYNDY
CORKMAN What about Maggie? Do you know if she passed the course?
Yes, I know now.	CYNDY

	May I continue with my cross ex	ZANDER ( to Kleiderman ) xamination?
	You may continue.	KLEIDERMAN
		ZANDER ( to Kleiderman ) consider Professor Rheinhardt to be fair?
Obje	Objection. Calls for speculation	ABNER and an opinion.
	Sustained.	KLEIDERMAN
During the cla found unfair.	During the class, did Professor	ZANDER Rheinhardt do or say anything that you
	No.	CYNDY
	Did you complain about the gra	ZANDER de he gave you on the paper?
	No.	CYNDY
		ZANDER ve no more questions for this witness.
		ABNER (to Kleiderman) two more questions for this witness.

KLEIDERMAN

I thought you were finished with the witness.

ABNER

I thought so too, but Ms. O'Doul brought up a few points that require further examination.

KLEIDERMAN

Granted, but keep it brief.

ABNER

(to Kleiderman)

Thank you. (to Cyndy) Do you know if Professor Rheinhardt was fair with Maggie?

CYNDY

I don't know. I do know that he was fair with me.

ABNER

I have no more questions for this witness.

KLEIDERMAN

(to Zander)

Do you have any more questions for this witness?

ZANDER

(to Kleiderman)

None, madam chairman.

KLEIDERMAN

(to Cyndy)

The witness may step down.

Cyndy exits.

KLEIDERMAN

(to Abner)

You may call your next witness.

ABNER

I call Ms. Erdley O'Shay. (Erdley enters and goes to the witness stand.)

KLEIDERMAN

(to Erdley)

Please raise you right hand. (Erdley raise her right hand.) Do you solemnly promise or affirm to tell the truth, the whole truth and nothing but the truth?

ERDLEY

I do. (Erdley lowers her right hand.)

KLEIDERMAN

(to Erdley)

You may be seated. (Erdley sits.)

ABNER

You are acquainted with the plaintiff?

ERDLEY

Yes, I am.

ABNER

Is she a close friend?

ERDLEY

No.

ABNER

But you do know her?

ERDLEY

Only in class.

ABNER

(to Kleiderman)

Did my client ever say anything to you in class that you found offensive or strange?

No.	ERDLEY
Did you ever laugh or giggle in	ABNER n class?
I may have.	ERDLEY
Did you ever see or hear my cl	ABNER lient laugh or giggle in class?
No.	ERDLEY
So what was so amusing in cla	ABNER ass that it caused you to laugh?
When I got my term paper bac	ERDLEY k. I was happy with my grade. So I laughed.
Did you get an F?	ABNER
Of course not.	ERDLEY
Did the professor tell you to st	ABNER cop laughing?
Yes.	ERDLEY
Did he express his disapprova	ABNER Il over you laughing in class?

ERDLEY  Not exactly disapproval. He just said that if we had any questions we could talk with him.
ABNER Did he ever speak with you outside of class about your laughing in class?
ERDLEY No.
ABNER I have nothing more to ask the witness.
KLEIDERMAN ( to Zander ) You may cross examine the witness.
ZANDER (to Kleiderman)  Thank you, madam chairman. (to Erdley) You were in the same class as the plaintiff?
Yes.
ZANDER You had opportunity to hear her in class?
Yes.
ZANDER Was the plaintiff ever talkative in class?

ABNER

Objection. Calls for an opinion.

(to Kleiderman)

KLEIDERMAN

Objection sustained. (to Zander) Please rephrase.

ZANDER

(to Erdley)

During the class did the plaintiff ever respond to a question posed by Professor Rheinhardt regarding the Munich Conference?

Trolessor Kilenmarat regarding the Manich Conference:
Yes.	ERDLEY
Do you recall the question?	ZANDER
Yes.	ERDLEY
What was the question?	ZANDER
Who participated in the Munic	ERDLEY h Conference?
What was plaintiff's reply?	ZANDER
ERDLEY Well, she mentioned four names, and tell you truth I can't recall them, t went on to discuss her country, and food, and politics, whatever. It was all quentertaining.
Why was it entertaining?	ZANDER
	ERDLEY

Because she just went on and on and on talking.

Objection. Opinion.	ABNER (to Kleiderman)
Overruled. ( to Zander ) You may	KLEIDERMAN continue.
And what did Professor Rheinh	ZANDER pardt say?
I recall him trying to cut in once	ERDLEY a twice.
Cut in? What do you mean?	ZANDER
He tried to interrupt her.	ERDLEY
What was he trying to say?	ZANDER
I don't recall for certain.	ERDLEY
Did the same thing happen in s	ZANDER subsequent classes?
What same things?	ERDLEY
That the plaintiff would go on a	ZANDER nd on and on talking?

Δ	R	N	F	R

(to Kleiderman)

Once again, I must object to such a mischaracterization.

KLEIDERMAN

Objection overruled. (to Abner) Mr. Yaebelman, the witness is testifying as to what she observed and or heard. (to Zander) You may continue.

ZANDER

(to Kleiderman)

Thank you, your honor. (to Erdley) Did Professor Rheinhardt ever use any harsh words in class?

ERDLEY

No.

EPPLER

(to Erdley)

What did you think about Professor Rheinhardt as a teacher?

ERDLEY

He was okay. He taught the class.

EPPLER

Now, getting back to the question posed about the Munich Conference, besides the plaintiff how many other students responded?

ERDLEY

None.

CORKMAN

And so the only student who responded was the plaintiff?

ERDLEY

Yes.

Were you surprised that anyon	CORKMAN ne replied?
Yes, I was.	ERDLEY
Why was that?	CORKMAN
Because you had to know son answer the question.	ERDLEY nething about the Munich Conference to
I'm finished asking questions.	CORKMAN (to Kleiderman)
You may continue.	KLEIDERMAN (to Zander)
Thank you. ( to Erdley ) So the	ZANDER Professor usually lectured?
Yes.	ERDLEY
Did he ever discuss the requir	ZANDER rements for the term paper?
Yes, he did.	ERDLEY
Did anyone in class have any	ZANDER questions about the term paper?

ERDLEY
ZANDER present on the day when the requirements
ERDLEY
ZANDER ( to Kleiderman ) his witness.
ABNER (to Kleiderman)
KLEIDERMAN (to Abner)
ABNER ( to Erdley ) age classroom discussion?
ERDLEY
ABNER free to ask questions or make comments?
ERDLEY

Did the respondent ever specif	ABNER ically prohibit classroom discussion?
No.	ERDLEY
Did the respondent ever place of comments made in class?	ABNER any kind of restrictions on the length or
No.	ERDLEY
Did the respondent ever invite	ABNER you to meet with him after class?
No.	ERDLEY
Objection. Relevance?	ZANDER (to Kleiderman)
Maybe your client was making e of class.	ABNER (to Zander) it a habit to meet with female students

Stop trying to defame this witness or my client. The sole issue is the validity of a grade, that's all.

ABNER

(to Kleiderman)

With all due respect to learned counsel, the respondent's conduct is at issue because it goes to the question of intent.

(to Kleiderman)

What are you talking about? It's about a dispute over a grade, period.

KLEIDERMAN

The objection is sustained. Both of you will have ample opportunity to sum up your cases during closing. We have to keep the hearing moving forward. (to Abner) Are you finished with the witness?

ABNER

(to Kleiderman)

Soon, your honor. I still have a few more questions for this witness. (to Erdley) Now you say that my client went on and on talking. What did she do? Just go blah, blah, blah, blah?

ERDLEY

I wouldn't say that she went blah, blah, blah.

ABNER

Then how did she sound?

ERDLEY

She sounded like someone who had a lot to say.

ABNER

And was that disruptive?

ERDLEY

I didn't find it disruptive.

ABNER

Did anyone in the class complain?

ERDLEY

Not that I know of.

Did Profesor Rheinhardt act o	ABNER lecisively to stop her?
I don't understand what you r	ERDLEY nean.
Did he tell my client to stop ta	ABNER alking or use similar language?
Not that I can remember.	ERDLEY
How was my client's demeand	ABNER or?
What's demeanor?	ERDLEY
Her behavior. How did she be	ABNER have in class?
Her behavior seemed fine to rattitude or anything like that.	ERDLEY ne. I don't remember her ever having an
So, during the class you neve	ABNER er observed my client behaving badly?
Yes.	ERDLEY
By yes, you mean no, you nev	ABNER ver observed her behaving badly?
Yes, or no. Now I'm confused	ERDLEY

(to Kleiderman)

Your honor, I move that this witness's testimony be stricken from the record.

ABNER

(to Kleiderman)

I object to that motion.

ZANDER

(to Abner)

Sir, you are making mockery of these proceedings.

ABNER

(to Zander)

Young woman, that is, if you are a woman, you don't know what you're talking about.

ZANDER

(angered)

Oh, shut up!

KLEIDERMAN

Order in the court! I am directing both counsels to direct their remarks to the chair and not to each other. Is that clear? Any further outbursts and I will impose sanctions. Now, Mr. Yeabelman, are you finished with your re-direct?

ABNER

I am, your honor.

KLEIDERMAN

(to Zander)

Do you have any more questions for this witness?

ZANDER

(to Kleiderman)

None, madam chairman.

KLEIDERMAN

Good. (to Erdley) You are now excused. You may leave. Erdley exits. (to Abner) You may call your next witness.

ABNER

Thank you, your honor. I call Professor Lester McNally. (McNally enters and goes into the witness box.)

KLEIDERMAN

(to McNally)

Please raise your right hand. (McNally raise his right hand.) Do you solemnly promise or affirm to tell the truth, the whole truth and nothing but the truth?

McNALLY

I do. (McNally lowers his right hand.)

KLEIDERMAN

You may be seated. McNally sits.

ABNER

Professor McNally, how long have you known Professor Rheinhardt?

ZANDER

Objection. Relevance.

ABNER

(to Kleiderman)

Your honor, I'm trying to establish the witness's credibility.

ZANDER

Respondent is willing to stipulate that my client and the witness know each other.

KLEIDERMAN

(to Abner)

The respondent is willing to stipulate that your witness and the respondent know each other.

	Fine, madam chairman.	ABNER
	Good. So stipulated. (to Abner)	KLEIDERMAN You may continue.
Was there a time when you hear Professor Rheinhardt's class?		ABNER ard some commotion coming out of
	Yes.	McNALLY
	When?	ABNER
	About two months ago.	McNALLY
	What were the circumstances?	ABNER
loudly	I was walking through the corri / yelling.	McNALLY idor when I heard what sounded like someone
	What was being said?	ABNER
conce		McNALLY arbled, but it was loud enough to cause me
	Then what did you do?	ABNER

I went into the room.	McNALLY
Who was in the room?	ABNER
Professor Rheinhardt. He was	McNALLY alone.
What did you do next?	ABNER
I asked him what was the matte	McNALLY er?
What was Professor Rheinhard	ABNER dt's state of mind?
He was excited and angry.	McNALLY
Did he explain why he was exc	ABNER ited and angry?
He did.	McNALLY
What did he say?	ABNER
He complained about one his s	McNALLY students having monopolized the class and making him bad. Something to that effect. I can't remember the exact words.

ABNER

Did he say anything else?

	Yes, I recall him saying that she	McNALLY e knew that he was German.
	No further questions. (to Zande	ABNER er) Your witness.
teach	 	ZANDER ( to McNally ) hiliar with Professor Rheinhardt's style of
	I am.	McNALLY
	What style does he employ?	ZANDER
	Lecture.	McNALLY
gradu	Is that considered the most effort	ZANDER ective method of teaching at the metho	Well, that's really hard to say. E od that works well for them.	McNALLY Each professor has their own particular
	Has anyone ever complained to	ZANDER  you about Professor Rheinhardt?
	No. As a matter of fact he has a	McNALLY an excellent reputation in the school.

ZANDER So there is no official right or wrong way of teaching?

McNALLY

No, there isn't. It's what works best for you and the students.
ZANDER Now you say that you went into the classroom and observed Profess Rheinhardt to be livid. Correct?
Yes.	McNALLY
And that caused you concern?	ZANDER
Yes.	McNALLY
Why did it cause concern?	ZANDER
Because I thought Professor R	McNALLY heinhardt might need some assistance.
So you went into the classroon	ZANDER  n to provide assistance if necessary?
Yes.	McNALLY
And was your assistance neces	ZANDER ssary?

McNALLY

No.

ZANDER Did Professor Rheinhardt request your assistance? McNALLY No.

ZANDER

So by what right or authority did you presume to go into that classroom?

McNALLY

What a minute! You're making it sound like I did something wrong!

ZANDER

Professor McNally, I'm just trying to sort out the facts, that's all. Nobody's questioning your motives.

McNALLY

Well, you could have fooled me.

ABNER

Objection to this whole line of questioning. Prejudicial.

ZANDER

(to Kleiderman)

Your honor, I'm trying to establish that my client was in full control of himself.

KLEIDERMAN

Objection overruled. (to Zander) You may continue.

ZANDER

(to McNally)

During your discussion with Professor Rheinhardt, did he specifically mention the name of any student?

McNALLY

No.

	Did you ask?	EPPLER
	No.	McNALLY
	Why not?	EPPLER
	It didn't seem important.	McNALLY
CORKMAN I'm a little confused. You heard some noise coming from the respectassroom, then went into the classroom uninvited, and then decided the was bothering the professor was unimportant?		I some noise coming from the respondents' com uninvited, and then decided that what
	No! You're misconstruing my v	McNALLY vords.
	I am? They're your words.	CORKMAN
	I heard what I thought was a co	McNALLY ommotion and I went in to investigate.
comr		CORKMAN story. Before it was a noise, now it's a elp, now it was to investigate. Which was it?
	You're twisting my words.	McNALLY
	I think not.	CORKMAN

May I continue?	ZANDER (to Kleiderman)
You may.	KLEIDERMAN
After entering the classroom, d	ZANDER (to McNally) id you call the police?
No.	McNALLY
Did you report this matter to yo	ZANDER our superiors?
No.	McNALLY
Did you do take any further act	ZANDER ion?
No.	McNALLY
I'm finished with this witness.	ZANDER
I would like to do a re-direct, if	ABNER ( to Kleiderman ) I may.
Go ahead, but keep it brief.	KLEIDERMAN (to Abner)

ABNER
(to	McNallv)

Why did you not report what you had heard and seen to your superiors?

McNALLY

Frankly, because I felt that Professor Rheinhardt just had a bad day, that's all.

ABNER

That he was agitated did not give you cause for concern?

ZANDER

Objection. Speculation.

KLEIDERMAN

Sustained.

ABNER

Yet you went into the classroom. You must have believed that something was amiss.

ZANDER

Objection. Calls for a conclusion.

KLEIDERMAN

Sustained. (to Abner) Are you finished with this witness yet?

ABNER

(to Kleiderman)

One more question, your honor. (to McNally) Did you believe that the respondent seemed troubled and that it had to do with a student?

McNALLY

I did.

Catalan lastit assessant lastit	ABNER finished with my re-direct.

KLEIDERMAN (to McNally)

You may leave the witness stand. McNally exits. (to Abner) Are you ready to call your next witness?

ABNER (to Kleiderman)

I am. I call Sunny Dubois.

ľm

Sunny enters and goes into the witness stand.

KLEIDERMAN (to Sunny)

Please raise your right hand. (Sunny raises her right hand.) Do you solemnly promise or affirm to tell the truth, the whole truth and nothing but the truth?

SUNNY

I do. (Sunny lowers her right hand.)

KLEIDERMAN

You may sit. Sunny sits.

ABNER

Are you employed?

SUNNY

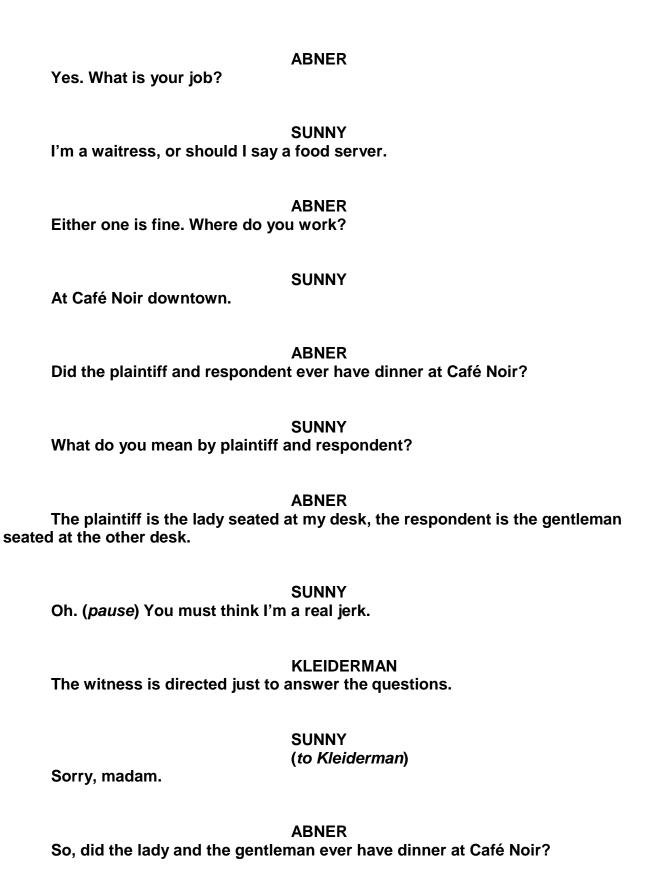

Yes.

ABNER

In what capacity?

SUNNY

Do you mean what's my job?

Yes.	SUNNY
When?	ABNER
About three weeks ago.	SUNNY
Were you their server?	ABNER
Yes.	SUNNY
What did they order?	ABNER
Objection. Relevance?	ZANDER
Sustained.	KLEIDERMAN
	ABNER
Did anything unusual occur wh	nile they were having dinner?
Not that I know of.	SUNNY
No problems?	ABNER
None that I saw.	SUNNY

No commotions?	ABNER
None that I saw.	SUNNY
At some point during their dingentleman sitting alone?	ABNER ner did you go to the table and find the
Yes.	SUNNY
Did you observe anything unu	ABNER sual or out of order?
Yes. He had water dripping fro	SUNNY m his head.
How much water?	ABNER
Not that much.	SUNNY
What did you say to him?	ABNER
Is everything alright?	SUNNY
And what did he say?	ABNER

SUNNY Please get me a towel. So I got him a towel. That was it.
ABNER ( to Zander ) Your witness.
ZANDER Ms. Dubois, did the gentleman seem upset?
SUNNY I really couldn't notice because the lights were dimmed.
ZANDER However, he did ask for a towel?
SUNNY Yes.
ZANDER Is it usual for customers in your restaurant to have water dripping from their head and asking for towels?
SUNNY No, it is not usual.
ZANDER Did the gentleman say anything else to you?
SUNNY He said bring me the bill. So I brought him the bill.
ZANDER Then what happened?

	He got up and left.	SUNNY
	I'm finished with this witness.	ZANDER (to Kleiderman)
	Your honor, I wish to re-direct.	ABNER
	Okay, but keep it brief.	KLEIDERMAN
the po	After you observed the gentlem plice called?	ABNER ( to Sunny ) nan with water dripping from his head, were
	No.	SUNNY
	Why was that?	ABNER
	There was no reason to call the	SUNNY e police. He was wet, that's all.
	Did you wonder why he was we	ABNER et?
	I thought he might have been d	SUNNY runk.
	Was he?	ABNER

	Objection. Calls for speculation	ZANDER n.
	Rephrase.	KLEIDERMAN (to Abner)
	Did you serve them any liquor?	ABNER (to Sunny)
	Yes, I served the man a screw of	SUNNY driver.
	Thank you. (to Zander) I'm finis	ABNER shed.
call th	Finding your customer with wane police?	ZANDER (to Sunny) Iter dripping from his head was no reason to
	No.	SUNNY
	How do you think the water go	ZANDER t on his head?
	Objection. I already asked the v	ABNER witness that question.
	Overruled. You asked the witne	KLEIDERMAN ess why the respondent was wet.
	Same thing, madam Chairman.	ABNER Just different words.

KLEIDERMAN My ruling stands. ( to Sunny ) You may answer the question.
I really don't know.	SUNNY
Did you ask?	ZANDER
No.	SUNNY
Why not?	ZANDER
Because his guest was gone a	SUNNY nd all he wanted was the check, and a towel.
Then what did you do?	ZANDER
I gave him a towel.	SUNNY
Did he give it back?	ZANDER
No, he threw it on the table.	SUNNY
Threw it?	ZANDER

SUNNY

Yes.

ZANDER (to Kleiderman)

I'm through with this witness.

KLEIDERMAN

(to Sunny)

You are excused. Sunny exits. (to Abner) You may call your next witness.

ABNER

I call Stepan Busoc.

Stepan enters and goes into the witness box.

ZANDER

(to Kleiderman)

I object to this witness being called. His testimony can only be hearsay.

ABNER

Madam chairman, the witness can testify as to my client's state of mind shortly after her meeting with the respondent.

ZANDER

The witness's testimony will be highly prejudicial.

ABNER

No, madam chairman. The witness's testimony will not be prejudicial. It will be truthful.

ZANDER

But, madam chairman, the witness has no connection with the school and was not directly involved with any of the events relating to this matter.

ABNER

That is irrelevant, madam chairman. This is not a criminal case and my client has a right to call whomever she wants.

KLEIDERMAN

I'll allow the witness to testify, provisionally. (to Busoc) Please raise your right hand. (Stepan raises his right hand.) Do you solemnly promise or affirm to tell the truth, the whole truth and nothing but the truth?

STEPAN

I do. (Stepan lowers his right hand).

KLEIDERMAN

(to Stepan)

You may be seated. (Stepan sits.)

ABNER

Do you know my client?

STEPAN

Yes.

ABNER

How long have you known her?

STEPAN

All my life. We're from the same town in Slovakia.

ABNER

On the day my client met with the respondent, what were you doing?

STEPAN

During the day I was working.

ABNER

Where do you work?

STEPAN

At the United Nations.

ZANDER (to Kleiderman)

Where is all this taking us?

KLEIDERMAN

(to Abner)

Mr. Yeabelman, Ms. O'Doul asks a legitimate question. Where are you taking us?

ABNER

(to Kleiderman)

Your honor, I'm trying to establish the witness's credibility.

CORKMAN

Credibility as to what?

EPPLER

I'm confused too. (to Kleiderman) Why is this witness testifying?

KLEIDERMAN

(to Eppler)

Because he may be able to testify on matters relevant to this case.

EPPLER

Yes, but if he didn't witness anything directly, wasn't even in the school, then what's the point of his testimony?

CORKMAN

We did allow the waitress's testimony, didn't we?

EPPLER

That was different. She actually worked at the place where the two parties met.

CORKMAN

(to Kleiderman)

Madam Chairwoman, I move that the witness's testimony be admitted.

So ordered.	KLEIDERMAN
l object.	EPPLER
Your objection is noted. ( to A	KLEIDERMAN bner) You may proceed.
Thank you, madam chairman. since childhood. Is that correct?	ABNER ( to Kleiderman ) . ( to Stepan ) So you have known my client
That is correct.	STEPAN
On the evening of the day who	ABNER en the my client and the professor met, did
Yes, we met.	STEPAN
Where?	ABNER
In my apartment.	STEPAN
Was this meeting planned?	ABNER
No.	STEPAN

So, she just came over unanr	ABNER nounced?
Yes.	STEPAN
Were you surprised?	ABNER
Yes.	STEPAN
Yet you met with her. Yes?	ABNER
Yes.	STEPAN
After she arrived, what did th	ABNER e two of you discuss?
We discussed this dinner tha	STEPAN at she and this man had at a restaurant.
What did my client say?	ABNER
	STEPAN on with her grade and how her professor or an A, and how she dumped water over his head.

ABNER

Did she explain why she dumped water over his head?

She did.	STEPAN
What did she say?	ABNER
She was furious at him for trying	STEPAN ng to buy her silence.
Have you ever known my clien	ABNER to behave that way in the past?
Behave in what way?	STEPAN
Dump water over someone's h	ABNER ead?
No. Never.	STEPAN
So this was unusual?	ABNER
Yes, For her.	STEPAN
Have you ever had dinner with	ABNER my client in a restaurant?
Many times.	STEPAN
And how does she usually beh	ABNER ave?

Like a lady. Never gets excit	STEPAN ted, never gets angry.
Did she show you a term pa	ABNER uper?
No.	STEPAN
I'm finished with my direct.	ABNER ( to Zander ) Your witness.
Mr. Busoc, you testified that childhood in Slovakia. Yes?	ZANDER t you have known the plaintiff since your
Correct.	STEPAN
How would you describe yo	ZANDER ur relationship with the plaintiff?
I don't understand the ques	STEPAN tion.
Is your relationship with her	ZANDER r close?
I still don't understand what	STEPAN t you're asking?
Are you and the plaintiff inti	ZANDER imate?
Don't answer that!	MAGGIE

_	_		_	_
Λ	o	NI		D
$\boldsymbol{H}$	О	ıv		П

Objection!

KLEIDERMAN

Order! (to Maggie) Control yourself! (to Abner) Control your client! (to Zander) Objection overruled. The witness may answer.

MAGGIE

No! (to Kleiderman) Please! That's personal!

ABNER

I appeal the objection!

KLEIDERMAN

The objection stands and as for you (to Maggie) one more outburst and I will declare these proceedings closed. Do you understand?

MAGGIE

This is outrageous. Why, in Slovakia if a gentleman was asked such a question he'd be horsewhipped.

KLEIDERMAN

You are trying my patience! (to Abner) Mr. Yeadelman, once again, I order you to control your client!

ABNER

I'll do what I can, Madam Chairwoman.

KLEIDERMAN

(to Stepan)

Please answer the question.

STEPAN

What was the question?

	KLEIDERMAN Are you and the plaintiff intimate?
	What do you mean by intimate	STEPAN ?
	Mr. Busoc, do you know Englis	ZANDER sh?
	Yes.	STEPAN
	So you know the meaning of the	ZANDER ne word intimate?
	Yes I do. It means warm or clos	STEPAN se.
plaint		ZANDER a warm or close relationship with the
	Yes, I guess I do.	STEPAN
	How close?	ZANDER
	Close. What more do you want	STEPAN me to say?
	I want you to tell the truth. Onc	ZANDER e again, how close?
	I can't answer that.	STEPAN

ZANDER (to Kleiderman)

The witness is being evasive.

KLEIDERMAN

(to Stepan)

Stop being evasive and answer the question.

STEPAN

I did answer the question.

ZANDER

Are you single or married?

ABNER

Objection! Move to strike as irrelevant!

ZANDER

(to Abner)

Now what? (to Kleiderman) Madam Chairman, I'm trying to establish that the witness is biased in favor of the plaintiff.

STEPAN

I object! I am not biased! I am testifying truthfully!

KLEIDERMAN

Order! (to Stepan) Please refrain from any further outbursts. (to Abner) Your objection is overruled. (to Zander) Direct your comments to the hearing officer.

ZANDER

(to Kleiderman)

Thank you. (to Stepan) Now, are you single or married?

STEPAN

I refuse to answer.

(to Kleiderman)

I move that the witness be cited for contempt.

STEPAN

(angry)

This is outrageous. (to Kleiderman) I came here to testify and now I'm in trouble? What kind of court is this?

KLEIDERMAN

(to Stepan)

You will calm yourself now or I will have you removed.

ABNER

(to Kleiderman)

I move that the opposing counsel be ordered to stop pestering the witness.

ZANDER

(to Kleiderman)

I am not pestering the witness, Madam Chairman.

KLEIDERMAN

(to Stepan)

You are hereby excused.

ZANDER

But I'm not finished with the witness.

KLEIDERMAN

(to Zander)

Yes, you are.

STEPAN

That means I can leave?

KLEIDERMAN

Yes.

Good bye!	STEPAN
Sir, just leave.	KLEIDERMAN
I'm going! ( to Maggie ) Good Iu	STEPAN ıck. Stepan exits.
Are there any other witnesses	KLEIDERMAN ?
Yes, Madam Chairman.	ABNER
Then call your next witness	KLEIDERMAN
E	nd of part one.