

Good Guys Versus Bad Guys, Left Wing Style

by Phillip W. Weiss

The problem in American colleges and universities today is not only what they are teaching, which is pseudo-intellectual political propaganda packaged as college-level course work, but how it is being taught. Colleges offer an array of courses on topics of a highly political, highly sensitive and highly controversial nature. These courses are structured around the premise that society is divided into two classes, there are oppressed and the oppressors, or if you will, good guys and bad guys, with the oppressed being the good guys and the oppressors being the bad guys. This is the same kind of formula that is used in movies and theatrical productions.

Instead of educating students, these courses are STRUCTURED to elicit emotional responses, such as anger and indignation. Once that emotional response is achieved, it is just a matter of time before the student, now conditioned to feel resentment and hatred, feels the urge to rage against a society that he or she has been TAUGHT, at duly accredited schools by duly accredited professors, is evil, unjust, racist, immoral, and MUST BE DESTROYED. I give this phenomenon a name: REACTIVE INCITEMENT DISPLACEMENT SYNDROME or RIDS.

Now, who are the good guys and who are the bad guys? The good guys are those persons or groups who are the victims of the oppressors. They include, but are not limited to the following:

persons of color,

indigenous people,

gays,

lesbians,

transexuals,

bisexuals,

multi-genders,

workers,

women (except pro-lifers), the incarcerated, and the socially maladjusted (except socially maladjusted white males).

The bad guys are those persons and groups who oppress the good guys. The oppressors include but are not limited to the following:

privileged white (middle class American) males, pro-life women,

imperialist nations (meaning the United States), greedy capitalists (meaning American oil companies), the police (all of whom are fascist storm troopers),

Western (i.e., white) civilization,

Christopher Columbus (who was an agent of Western imperialism),

Robert E. Lee (a warrior for white racism),

Zionists (who are racists),

Israel (which is an outpost of Western, i.e., white, colonialism),

Jews (who are racist colonialists), the U. S. Supreme Court (dominated by stooges for racism), and all other perceived purveyors of social injustice, all wrapped up in the person of DONALD TRUMP and Trump's cabal, the Republican Party.

This is what is being taught at American colleges and universities today, at the taxpayers' expense.
