

Harris Will Lose

by Phillip W. Weiss

Kamala Harris will lose the 2024 election. Unsurprisingly, Fake News is play her up to the hilt and marginalizing Donald Trump. Trump's name appears on every state ballot. The American voters will get to decide who they want for POTUS. The choice is clear. Everybody knows what each candidate stands for. So, it is pointless to do further campaigning.

Trump has declined to debate Harris. Trump has no reason to debate Harris. If the voters elect Harris, then that will be proof that the United States that I grew up in is gone and has been replaced a new United States that is foreign to me. It will also mean the destruction of the United States as Harris, with unfettered powers, will aggressively implement her party's totally partisan program that will erode the middle class, weaken the United States overseas and hasten the demise of the United States. If that's what the voters want, then so be it. But I believe that most voters want the United States to survive and maintain its middle class values.

However, regarding the long-term future of the United States, the prognosis is poor. The country is wealthy, but its structure is frayed. The people are disunited. Our politics are in shambles. The economy, although massive is brittle. There is a pervasive sense of foreboding. Things just don't seem settled. People are consuming drugs and booze at record levels. There is a pervasive feeling of anger and a gnawing belief that something terrible is going to happen.

The United States is involved in wars, and the inflation, although abating, is still there. When one witnesses forty thousand people singing God Bless America, It is hard to believe that American voters would vote for an anti-American politician like Kamala Harris.

A lot of people in the United States hate the United States and believe that the United States is a bad country. This is the position of the Democratic Party which has been corrupted by a group of Neo-Nazis masquerading as conventional-looking people who hate the United States and the American people. They want to take over and destroy the country. But Donald Trump will stop them and, in the process, earn the gratitude of a nation.
