

The Rantings of an Anti-Semite

by Lester van der Groz

(This is a work of fiction. This document is preposterous, rambling literary garbage and pure nonsense. Yet, there are people who would treat every word in this document as the gospel truth to promote and justify their hatred of Jews. That fact is truly disturbing.)

Dear Master Michaelson,

The Ayatollah is considering suing the United States for libel. He wants you to represent the nation of Iran in federal court. However, you must provide the password and settle accounts with Mr. Chung who is very angry at you. The Ayatollah claims that because the USA has labelled his country a terrorist state, a label that the Ayatollah rejects as baseless (in fact, the Ayatollah claims that he has only the utmost respect for the state of Israel and wishes the Zionist state only the best), his nation has sustained immeasurable damage. Hence, he plans to sue for ten trillion dollars. But he needs a good attorney who knows his way around the southern district, He wants you. But you must provide the password. The Ayatollah is a real stickler for passwords. He is obsessed with passwords. Give him the password.

If you forgot the password, let me know and I'll work it out with the Ayatollah. News flash: the Ayatollah now believes that he is Adali Stephenson. Not Stevenson, Stephenson

Give the password. Mr. Chung is waiting. The Ayatollah wants to sue the United States, but he still wants you to deliver the $30,000,000,000,000 in Confederate currency to Mr. Chung who is waiting. The Ayatollah wants to retain you. The Ayatollah will pay your fee. He needs you. Don't let him down.

The Ayatollah is an admirer of Ruth Bader Ginsburg. The Ayatollah was a disciple of Ruth Bader Ginsburg. There are also several scholarly studies conducted by Harvard University and funded by special federal grants totaling over $70 billion, that assert that Ms. Ginsburg and the Ayatollah were in fact lovers and the parents of an illegitimate child who later became the Chairman of Palestinian Studies at Brooklyn College.

Further, these studies, highly plagiarized of course, also assert that the Ayatollah was the first cousin of Menachem Begun and was secretly bar mitzvah in 1964. Brooklyn College denies the findings of the Harvard study, dismissing it as Zionist propaganda and evidence that Harvard is now controlled by a Zionist clique led by Senators Charles Schumer and Richard Blumenthal who are plotting to take over the world and force every male on the planet to undergo circumcision under the supervision of the mysterious Council of Jewish Elders.

The Council of Jewish Elders operate out of a building owned by Barack Obama whose real name is Seymour Mosovovich. A recent study conducted by the political science department at Columbia University confirmed that Hamas is a front for the Council of Jewish Elders. The CJE wants to make the whole world Jewish and change the name of the planet from Earth to Israel. They want to change the name of Mount Everest to Mount Zion and they want to replace the four presidents on Mount Rushmore with the faces of Golda Meir, Bibi Netanyahu, Menachem Begun, and Anwar Sadat.

Ty Cobb was a crypto-Jew. Proof of that was how often he stole bases. Aaron Judge is the secret grandson of Menachem Begun. Judge's birth name was Yehudah ben-Jacob. In fact, today, MLB is infested with Zionists. Perhaps the most successful Zionist baseball player imposter is Shohei Ohtani, real name Vladimir Bulchowski, born in Volgograd, Russia but raised in Japan where he had bar mitzvah. Half of the baseball players today are radical Zionists.

According to a study conducted by the UCLA Committee for a Free Palestine, the Zionists have completely infiltrated major league baseball. Even the Ayatollah is alarmed. Today MLB, tomorrow the world.

Ty Cobb was a Zionist.

Mohammed Ali was a Zionist.

If the Zionists succeed, every male human will have to undergo circumcision. To weed out the Zionists, the police should have the right to demand that a male person pull down his pants to determine whether he is circumcised.

The Council of Jewish Elders control the world. Babe Ruth was the first cousin of Theodore Herzl. The Zionists infiltrated the NY Yankees through Babe Ruth whose real name was Pincus Farbstein. Babe Ruth was fluent in Yiddish and attended Harvard University where he founded the Organization for Palestinian Justice.

President Warren G. Harding was the first US president to call for an independent Palestinian state. President Harding wanted to transform all of Palestine into a kibbutz. The real father of the modern-day Israel was Warren G. Harding. Harding first proposed a new state of Israel in 1890 in a letter he wrote to his cousin Otto von Bismarck. Bismarck, a great admirer of the Jewish people who Bismarck once called the finest people in Germany, proposed that the state of Israel be placed in northern Alaska. When the Eskimos objected, Bismarck then suggested that all the Jews be moved to Brooklyn, New York.

Bismarck was so fond of the Jewish people that he became fluent in Yiddish and had his sons circumcised and bar mitzvah even though they were goyim. Bismarck was under the care of Sigmund Freud who spent 14 years treating Bismarck who believed that he was the Chief Rabbi of Heidelberg and the protector of the Talmud. Bismarck also believed that the German people were one of the lost tribes of Israel and that all the Germans should join the Jews in Brooklyn, New York. Bismarck's great wish was to become the Grand Rabbi of Germany.

The Council of Jewish Elders. The woman is Shoshana bat-Shohani, the spiritual leader of the council who is a former Miss Jewish Zionist and the winner of the coveted Arthur Godfrey Peace Prize.

This is a pic of the abandoned building in Yonkers where the Zionists meet to plot strategy and hold rallies. The Zionists call this building Zion Hall. Inside this building the walls are covered with large portraits of Warren G. Harding, Otto von Bismarck and other heroes and martyrs of the Zionist movement.

The national food of Zionism – the salami sandwich on rye bread with mustard.

Another well-known Zionist food – French fries with ketchup.

The current leader of the World Zionist Movement, Yakov Ben Yehudah. The World Zionist Movement was founded in 1890 by Warren G. Harding. The credo of the WZM is “If it ain’t Jewish, it ain’t worth squat.”

You are the secret grandson of Warren G. Harding. Your real name is Lemuel Butler Harding, and you are the standard bearer of the World Zionist Movement.

Those who knew Leon said that he sounded like an Arab Jack Benny. Leon became a foremost scholar of the Quran and of the work of the Jewish comedian Henny Youngman. Leon knew over 1,000 one liners which he could deliver in Arabic and Farsi. The Ayatollah is a member of a Jewish sect comprised of American Jews who pass themselves off as ultra-orthodox Muslims. The Ayatollah was born in Hoboken, New Jersey, in 1937. His birth name was Leon Jacob Silberbrot. In 1951 he went to Israel to live on a kibbutz. On the kibbutz he met a Palestinian lady named Salah. She was twenty years old and was a double agent working for both Mossad and the Egyptian Intelligence Service. Salah befriended the young Leon who was in the throes of puberty.

Salah told Leon that one day he would become the leader of a great and powerful Muslim nation and would change his name and marry a Muslim woman. All of this came to pass except for being uncircumcised. His wife did not know that he was circumcised or that he would have the title of Ayatollah. On his wedding night his wife asked him why he was circumcised. Leon said that after he was born, he was kidnapped by a gang of Jewish gypsies who lived in Hoboken NJ. They called the moil who on the eighth day performed the sacred rite branding him a Jew.

Leon, who was now known as Ahmed Ben-Ali, learned the Arab language which he spoke with a thick Yiddish accent. Also, when he was still known as Leon Silberbrot, the Ayatollah taught as a substitute teacher for the Hoboken Department of Education. He specialized in teaching decimal points and how the decimal point was created by the Zionists to aggravate students. Leon told his students, "Before the state of Israel was founded, there was no such thing as a decimal point." Then in the classroom, Leon pointed to the two Jewish students in the class and said, "They're to blame! Get them!" Leon also taught military history. He complained that on June 6, 1944, instead of invading Normandy, the allies should have invaded Gaza and liberated the Palestinians from the Zionists.

Leon also became a disciple of the famous political scientist, Professor Berkowitz, and his faithful associate, Master Richard Michaelson, which of course, is you. Berkowitz and you are the top experts about Zionism. Even today you are busy formulating new proposals on how to neutralize the Zionist threat and save every male human from the menace posed by the moils.

Richard Michaelson aka Professor Berkowitz

The Ayatollah has nominated you for the Nobel Prize for Peace. You possess the secret plan for the Zionist conquest of the world. You uncovered this plan while masquerading as a student at Brooklyn College. There you “met” the mysterious professor Berkowitz who was the cousin of Leon Silberbrot who was to become the Ayatollah.

You have an uncontrollable addiction to the pastrami sandwich and the knish. As a Master of Political Science, you must conduct yourself with the dignity and restraint befitting one who has achieved such lofty accomplishments and to whom the Ayatollah relies on for inspiration. You are not just a scholar but a beacon of knowledge for the unenlightened. The Ayatollah needs you to stay sober and loyal to the mission. You knew the Ayatollah when the Ayatollah was Leon Silberbrot. You are the Master, therefore you must stay true to the mission. In fact, you are Berkowitz. Silberbrot knows that but your secret is safe. The Ayatollah admonished you to continue your work as Master Michaelson, Master of Political Science and leader of the movement to thwart the Zionists who want to force every male in the world to undergo circumcision and transform Palestine into a godless and materialistic Las Vegas lined with gaudy Jewish gambling halls, flashy hotels and overpriced department stores.

For it is written, “From the people of the city there shall emerge one who shall lead the way.” (Silberbrot, 14:3-6) You are the one. You are the anointed one. You earned your baptism at Brooklyn College where you first learned the mysteries of political science. You became a disciple of Silberbrot who renamed you Berkowitz which in the language of political science means “Brilliant One.” Now Silberbrot is the Ayatollah and calls on you to again spread the word and stop the people of the moils.

Stop the moils!!!

Remember Warren G. Harding!

Remember Menachem Begun!!

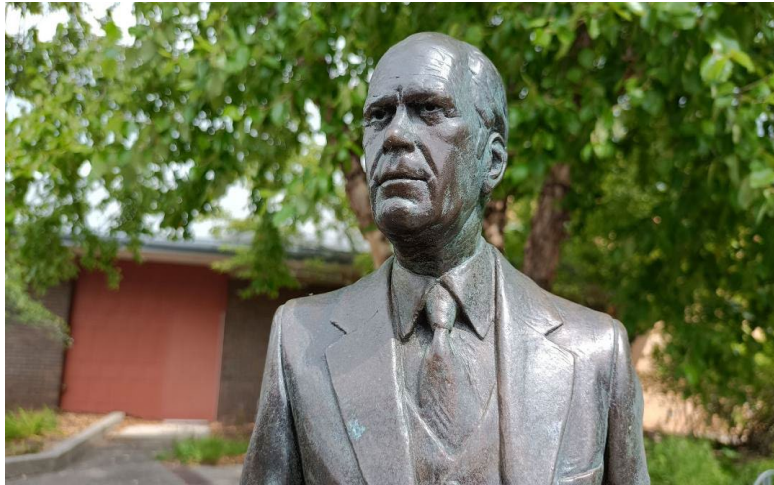

Remember Rory Calhoun!¹

Remember Wally Pipp!

Wally Pipp was born Waldo Phippenhauer in Newark, NJ. His father was a Lutheran minister who converted to Judaism and declared himself the George Washington of the Jewish people. Wally grew up idolizing the great Honus Wagner who he mistakenly believed to be Jewish and inspired by Wagner pursued as career in the field of baseball where he became the first baseman for the New York Yankees under the name Wally Pipp. While playing for the New York Yankees, Wally founded the organization Free Palestine Now, under the mistaken belief that the Palestinians were Jews who originally had been Lutherans. Hamas now honors Wally Pipp as one of the founders of Hamas and every year on Wally's birthday fire 5,000 rockets at Israel while chanting the name Wall Pipp.

Three of Wally's grandchildren are members of the Board of Directors of Hamas. The three grandchildren continue to try to convince Hamas that the Palestinians are Jewish.

A statue of the legendary Jewish warrior Jacob Ben-Hilleli who founded the elite Zionists Inc. which specializes in high-risk covert operations. Ben-Hilleli inspired the movie Rocky and the TV sitcom Gomer Pyle USMC.

This is a pic of the legendary godfather of Zionist Inc, Yitzhak Ben Naftali, who spearheaded the drive to circumcise every human male in the Mideast. Although originally a controversial figure, today he is beloved by all the shiksas who have become his most loyal followers. According to a 2024 poll conducted by the unbiased and highly respected International Institute for Zionist Studies, shiksas preferred the circumcised over the uncircumcised by a 5 to 1 margin. The shiksas polled were asked to compare both based on touch, feel, look, size, hardness, esthetics, and taste. This huge win earned the world Zionist movement new allies and another victory on the road to the inevitable triumph of Zionism.
