

Plays

By Phillip W. Weiss

There are some plays which are delights
To mind and to the ear,
They make us want to hum a tune
And sometimes even cheer.

So now let's mention a few plays
Which give us cause to feel
That we are in another world
Where fantasy is real.

West Side Story is quite a show
With lots of songs and dance;
It tells a tale about true love
And puts us in a trance.

And Follies is about the past
As people laugh and cry
Over things they did so long ago
When young and feeling spry.

And Sweeney Todd casts a dark spell
For those who want to stare
At Sweeney taking his revenge
While cutting strands of hair.

And Gypsy tells an upbeat tale
Of someone with a dream
And then what happens when
That dream becomes more than a scheme.

And Funny Thing is lots of fun
With comic lines and all
As Zero and his partner Phil
Bring laughter to the hall.

And Night Music is really grand
For people young and old,
As lovers sigh and sometimes cry
But also become bold.

That's all for now; there's so much more
That can be mentioned here,
But still this gives you some idea
About plays that are so dear.
